

Business Analyst

Responsibilities:

- Elicitation, analyzing and documenting system functional and technical requirements in close collaboration with the team;
- Creating prototypes on the software design stage (visual process modelling including the dynamic prototyping to improve the business automatization process)
- Communication both with Client and Engineering team at all development cycle;
- Writing and maintaining the technical documentation: Vision and Scope, SRS, FDD, manuals, technical descriptions, technical policy, guides, release notes, etc.

Requirements:

- High education;
- 2+ years of professional experience in IT;
- 1+ years of professional experience as BA in SD full development cycle;
- Experience in elicitation and formalization/regulation of requirements;
- Experience in modeling and business process analysis as well as system and UI wireframes creation, diagrams building (Use Case, Logical Data model, Business Domain model, Communication diagram, State Machine, Activity, Flow Chart, Sequence and etc); MS Visual Studio and MS TFS working experience is a plus;
- UML, BPMN knowledge;
- Different software development methodologies knowledge (Agile, Waterfall, Scrum, Kanban);
- English proficiency: Advanced, Fluent;
- Good communication skills and team-working abilities;
- Analytical thinking

We Offer:

- Strong professional team;
- The best technologies for successful work;
- Interesting projects for world famous brands;
- Spacious office near the metro and comfortable workplaces;
- Paid participation in seminars, training and conferences;
- Flexible work schedule;
- Paid sick days and vacations;
- Cars and bicycle parking;
- Corporate events, team building;
- Bonuses for important life events;
- Unlimited tea and coffee of all kinds

We are happy to see creative, full of ideas and brave people in our team, who are not afraid of challenges and are always ready to find new approaches and solutions, have fun working and take part in the company growth.